PAN-ELECTRIC TELEPHONE. Week-Savings of the New System. Birmingham Age, August 19th: The will be organized this week, nearly all the stock having been subscribed. It has every promise of prosperity. From a seemingly safe count it is expected that the local Exchange will start with something like 250 subscribers. The business men of the city, who, after hearing such wonderful things told of the new system, have seen it constantly and thoroughly tested, have almost to a man spoken for nes whenever it is put in operation here Besides the better operations of the im-proved telephone it has another strong recommendation in its cheapness to the user; and there are assurances of enough exchanges in the State to bring the cost down very considerably below the rates of the present companies. A new plan will be introduced, too, which will add ma terially to the saying of subscribers throughout the State. Heretofore lines have been only rented to the users; but the new company proposes to sell then outright, and at the same price that is After a review of the new compan prospects, it is not surprising that it has attracted, as subscribers of stock, some of the most successful and far-seeing business men of Birmingham. It would be strange if such men were induced to put
